

Kacie Ahmed

195 Forum Drive Mississauga, ON L4Z3M5

647-297-2865

haez@my.yorku.ca

Objective: To obtain an internship with Royal Bank of Canada (RBC)

Summary of Skills

- Working towards an undergraduate Honours B.Sc. in Computer Science
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- A creative and team-oriented developer
- Excellent analytical skills; solution oriented.
- A strong commitment to learning, growth and excellence
- Outstanding academic achievements. Top 15 percent of the student body. A Golden Key Member.
- Fluent in Java, SQL, C, and proficient with HTML & CSS
- Comfortable with both Linux and Windows OS

Education & Related Courses

- Honours Bachelor of Science in Computer Science 2017-2021
- Java – Advanced Object-Oriented Programming, York University – Toronto ON
- Android Studio – Programming for Mobile Computing, York University – Toronto ON
- C – Software Tools, York University – Toronto Ontario
- SQL – The complete SQL Bootcamp, Udemy – Toronto ON

Academic Experience

Developer – Appdroid Development Team, York University, - September 2018 – Present

- Created programming-based workshops as part of a team with the goal of teaching attendee's computer literacy through the development of specific program-based skills.
- Worked as a mentor in-order to help guide struggling workshop attendees follow the programming workshop.
- Worked as a presenter in-order to deliver the workshop content in a clear and engaging manner.
- Communicated with workshop attendees in professional, efficient and effective manner.
- Communicated and collaborated with fellow developers and York University staff regularly and proactively.

Programming Tutor – Excel Lasseonde, York University – January 2019 – April 2019

- Taught university student's basic java programming.
- Tutored students on a one-on-one bases through the York University Excel program.
- Communicated with students in a professional and effective manner.
- Understood specific students needs and tutoring according to those needs.
- Communicated and collaborated with York staff responsible for the program's oversight.

Debater – The Debate Club, York university September 2018 – Present

- Debated other student teams in a British Parliamentary (BP) format
- Debated subjects/topics that were provided on the spot
- Read a wide source of material from various subjects in order to prepare for debates
- Collaborated with students to form debate teams utilizing SWOT strategies
- Developed critical thinking skills. Ability to formulate arguments in a short time span; ability to communicate arguments effectively and an ability to listen effectively, synthesize opponents' arguments and return an effective argument.

Volunteer Experience:

Mentor – Frank McKechnie Community Centre and Library – 2012

- Volunteered at Frank McKechnie as a “Reading buddy” and “Homework Helper”.
- Helped teach children how to read.
- Collaborated and communicated with staff members.
- Communicated with children.
- Collaborated with children to better their education.
- Adapted to children's educational needs.

Mentor – Frank McKechnie Community Centre and Library - 2013

- Volunteered at Frank McKechnie Center as a Computer Buddy for older adults.
- Communicated effectively with older adults in order to help them gain better computer literacy skills.
- Learned how to create a lesson plan.
- Communicated with staff. Took direction and provided feedback in order to optimize interactions with older adults.
- Tailored teaching and communication style to everyone's needs

Camp Leader – Mississauga Central library – 2013

- Worked with young children with the goal of keeping them active and engaged
- Completed three days of training including but not limited to: how to lead games, how to interact appropriately with children, how to be effective and efficient in an emergency, and how to conduct and lead a large group
- Completed one week of placement at Frank McKechnie Camp
- Completed 40 hours of experience with LIT
- Graduated at the top of my class
- Received certificate of appreciation from the City of Mississauga

Community Training Programs:

Frank McKechnie Community centre/Mississauga Central library – Mississauga ON –2013

- Completed LIT (Leader in Training) course

Living Arts centre – Mississauga ON – 2013

- Completed LAC creative writing course

Living Arts centre – Mississauga ON – 2014

- Completed Photography course

Mississauga Valley – Mississauga ON – 2015

- Completed National Lifeguard Service (NLS) course

Frank McKechnie Community centre– Mississauga ON – 2016

- Completed Hi Five training program

Work Experience

Student Assistant to building maintenance manager, Forum Italia – Summer 2018

- Performed assigned building maintenance tasks including watering plants, cleaning carpets, assistance with repairs in resident units.
- Communicated and collaborated with Forum Italia staff to organize the logistics of small and medium size projects. Liaison for contractors while on the premises.
- Communicated regularly with older adult residence in order to answer questions, and in order to help address questions or concerns.

References Available Upon Request.